

Fidan Limani

Short Narrative

Fidan Limani works as a teaching assistant in the Department of Contemporary Sciences and Technologies (CST) at the South East European University in Tetovo.

He did his bachelor degree at the CST department, whereas he pursued his master's degree in the interdisciplinary field of Information Systems, graduating in 2007.

From January 2008 he joined the CST staff, engaging in all of its study programmes, but with a focus on the Business Informatics (BI) programme, more precisely in the courses related to Information Systems and their various applications in business context.

His current interests include the field of semantic technologies, which, at the same time, represent his challenge as part of the PhD degree with the Computer Media Group – part of Business Information Technology research are at the Christian – Albrecht University in Kiel, Germany.

Talk about short in the short narrative 😊
