

Rod B

Assistant Provost - Academic
Affairs at South East
European University

A dynamic, creative, and analytical team player with excellent organizational and managerial skills and more than 20 years of education, training and project management experience; 15 years flight experience as a pilot and instructor; eight years in newspaper production, design, and editing, combined with six years of experience as a photo journalist and seven years as a consultant. A proven performer with a rich track record of success and exceptional problem-solving and leadership abilities.

Specialties

Educational Administration New School Development Accreditation Process, Development, Planning and implementation.