

SHPEND IMERI BIO NOTES

Shpend Imeri is President of the Board of Association for Democratic Initiatives, a non-profit organization which has Special Consultative Status with the ECOSOC of the United Nations. He is responsible for representing the organization in New York, Geneva and Vienna, Program, Human resources and Financial planning and management of the organization.

He has comprehensive and in-depth knowledge of, and exposure to a range of issues related to the Rule of Law and human rights and proven knowledge and experience of rule of law issues, including knowledge of UN intergovernmental procedures; excellent knowledge of international human rights instruments and institutional mandates, policies and guidelines relating to the United Nations work in the area of rule of law and human rights.

He holds a MA degree on Diplomacy and has been guest lecturer for two semesters in SEEU and currently is the Executive Director of G5 – Institute for Democracy and Research.